BaZi Chart - Your Foundational Structure

The Day Master(You) Analysis

You were born on a Dīng-Yǒu (丁酉) day, with Dīng (丁) Fire as your Day Master. Dīng Fire belongs to the Yin Fire category, symbolized by candlelight, starlight, hearth fire, and lamplight—warm, refined, and delicately luminous.

When Dīng Fire is strong and supported, it resembles a candle illuminating the night or a hearth fire warming a cold winter. It dispels darkness and brings a sense of comfort and reassurance.

When Dīng Fire becomes weak or depleted, it is like a lamp running out of oil—faint, unstable, and unable to shine for long.

People born under Dīng Fire tend to be gentle and refined, sensitive and romantic, inwardly reserved yet emotionally rich, and resilient, able to maintain strength even in adversity.

However, Dīng Fire can also be overly thoughtful, easily influenced by the environment, and sensitive to emotional fluctuations.

To shine steadily and long-term, Dīng Fire needs to cultivate inner stability and confidence, allowing its warmth and light to radiate consistently.

Structural Analysis of the Four Seasons and Five Elements in Your Chart

Born in the Yǒu month, you enter the heart of autumn, a season defined by dryness. The presence of Water in your chart provides necessary moisture, preventing the Five Elements from falling into imbalance.

Fire: Fire represents your own element and belongs to the same category as your Day Master. Its strength is reasonably adequate, symbolizing siblings, peers, colleagues, and collaborative partners.

Metal: Metal is the strongest element in your chart, though it carries flaws that reduce its purity. It governs your father, wealth, authority, and the things you desire.

Water: Water is a balanced and qualified element, representing your male partner and career.

Earth: Earth is relatively weak, symbolizing children, academics, creativity, and opportunities for expression.

Wood: Wood is the missing and hidden element in your chart. It represents your mother, teachers, and external support.

BaZi Chart - Your Foundational Structure

Your Position Within This Chart

The strength of your Day Master determines whether you stand in a dominant or subordinate position within the chart. A strong Day Master can command weaker elements; a weak one must yield to stronger forces. In your case, you possess a certain degree of strength, but it is easily influenced by fluctuations in the Major Luck Cycle and Annual Luck. This means you must maintain a mindset of preparedness even during favourable periods and avoid assuming that smooth phases will continue by default. Without a forward-looking understanding of your luck cycles, downturns can lead to sudden and noticeable reversals. External support in your chart is relatively weak, meaning you often need to rely on your own effort. Most achievements come through persistence and personal involvement, especially in areas you deeply desire. The most effective approach is to maintain a calm, steady attitude toward gains and losses—reducing attachment allows you to navigate challenges with greater ease and composure.

Physical Constitution & Health in BaZi

Organs Requiring Close Attention

Gallbladder — Associated with gallstones, cholesterol imbalance, and digestive discomfort.

Thyroid — May relate to slower metabolism and irregular cellular regulation.

Small Intestine — Linked to poor digestion and absorption, nutritional insufficiency, susceptibility to infection, and constipation.

Lungs — More prone to infection, with potential for bronchitis or pneumonia.

Organs That Require Ongoing Maintenance

Stomach — Tends to show issues such as indigestion or gastritis.

Recommendation

These indications reflect symbolic tendencies within your chart. If you experience discomfort or have concerns, it is important to seek evaluation from a qualified healthcare professional for proper assessment and guidance.

Wealth Potential and Financial Outlook

Weight of Wealth in Your BaZi

Your chart shows wealth that appears substantial on the surface, yet contains underlying flaws that reduce its purity and stability. As a result, wealth becomes more prone to fluctuation and change.

Difficulty of Gaining Wealth & Best Approach

You possess the fundamental conditions to acquire wealth, but timing is crucial. Investing during unfavourable luck periods can easily lead to losses, even when opportunities seem promising. True success depends on aligning your actions with supportive luck cycles.

Most Favorable Life Stages for Wealth

Your more advantageous periods for wealth accumulation generally fall:

- before age 25, and
- between ages 35 and 55

However, the exact timing still depends on the specific Annual Luck of each year.

Risks to Watch Out For

You are best suited to proper wealth—stable income, long-term investments, and structured financial growth. You should avoid irregular wealth, such as speculative ventures, gambling, or high-risk short-term trades. In your chart, irregular wealth carries significant risk, and without strong luck support, it can easily lead to financial trouble.

Romantic Affinity

Your chart carries a natural Peach Blossom influence, meaning you easily attract admiration from the opposite sex and often become the object of pursuit.

Characteristics of Your Partner

Your male partner is typically someone who is deeply loyal and emotionally committed, responsible and principled, and equipped with a certain level of financial stability or family resources.

Recommended Criteria for Choosing a Partner

Beyond these traits, true compatibility is essential. Even if someone appears suitable on paper, without genuine resonance and alignment, they may not become a truly compatible life partner.

Recommended Approach to Relationship Dynamics

If you meet someone who matches the ideal qualities, harmony comes naturally. If not, you will need to adjust your behaviour and communication style to create the conditions for smooth interaction.

Marriage Conditions

Your most suitable partner is someone close in age, ideally within a three-year difference in either direction. A partner of the same birth year is even more favourable. Your optimal marriage window is approximately ages 25 to 45. Establishing a relationship or marriage around 2028—the year you turn 25 and enter the Bǐng-Wǔ (丙午) Major Luck Cycle—is especially auspicious.

Family and Interpersonal Relationships

Father

Your father appears outwardly strong and forceful, yet his own decisions often lead to damaged relationships, sometimes creating situations that are difficult to repair. He is also prone to conflict with his siblings and friends, reflecting a pattern of instability in his interpersonal dynamics.

Recommendation

In your chart, your father is represented by an element that remains long-term unstable, meaning the support he can offer you is limited. It is best not to rely on him as a primary source of assistance. Observe his condition and behaviour first, then decide whether maintaining a certain degree of distance is appropriate.

Mother

In your chart, your mother appears as an extremely weak element, meaning the support she can offer you is minimal or nearly absent. As a result, you often need to rely on your own strength to handle responsibilities and manage various matters in life.

Recommendation

Her presence in your chart indicates that she depends more on you than you do on her. She requires you to create stable conditions—emotionally, practically, or environmentally—for her to feel secure. As long as you are willing to provide this stability, your relationship with her can remain harmonious and free from major conflict.

Siblings and Peers (including friends, classmates, and colleagues)

Your relationship with peers is one of mutual dependence. Both sides play roles of support and reinforcement for each other. When one party becomes unstable or loses balance, both may be drawn into unfavourable—or even difficult—situations.

Recommendation

Because peers occupy a position in your chart that is easily affected by external influences, yet remain highly important to your overall stability, it is beneficial for you to take the initiative in maintaining these relationships. By investing effort, staying connected, and nurturing these bonds, you can reduce the impact of luck-cycle fluctuations and preserve a strong, supportive network around you.

Children (if any)

In your chart, children occupy a clear and visible position. Although their elemental strength is not particularly strong, they are consistently able to receive your care, support, and protection.

Recommendation

Even though you are fully capable of taking care of your children on your own, it is advisable to share part of the responsibility with your male partner. This arrangement strengthens the relationship among all three parties and enhances the overall cohesion of the family. To put it more directly: if responsibilities are not shared, the relationship between you and your male partner becomes more vulnerable to strain. This dynamic arises from the structural nature of your chart itself.

Employers, Supervisors, and Clients

You generally interact with them smoothly. You have a natural ability to read people’s intentions and emotional cues, allowing you to gain their trust and goodwill with ease. This is a clear advantage for you in professional environments.

Recommendation

Although you possess these strengths, employers, supervisors, and clients often operate in unstable or rapidly changing environments. To maintain consistently positive relationships, you will need to stay observant—monitoring shifts in circumstances, understanding their emotional state, and anticipating their needs. Doing so allows you to preserve harmony and continue leveraging this interpersonal advantage.

Employees, Subordinates, and Suppliers

They generally possess solid capability and can bring you financial resources as well as practical support in your work or business. Their presence can be beneficial, but the structure of your chart shows that this support is not without complications.

Recommendation

Because there are flaws and instability within this group, collaboration can easily lead to disagreements or misalignment, which may slow progress or disrupt outcomes. To minimize these risks, it is advisable not to assign the same task to multiple people or units simultaneously. Keeping responsibilities clearly separated helps prevent coordination issues and reduces the chance of things going off track.

Benefactors, Adversaries, Disputes, and Accidents

Benefactor Luck

You have strong benefactor luck in your chart, and people are often willing to offer help when you need it. However, when seeking assistance, it is best to focus on one person at a time. Relying on multiple benefactors simultaneously can unintentionally strain relationships and reduce the effectiveness of their support.

Level of Adversaries and Disputes

Although your interpersonal relationships are generally good, there are still individuals who may harbour hostility toward you. These situations tend to arise in romantic or emotionally charged contexts, where jealousy or rivalry can lead to gossip, conflict, or hidden adversaries.

Recommended Ways to Resolve or Avoid Conflict

As long as you know how to de-escalate at the right moment and avoid getting involved in complicated interpersonal entanglements, you can effectively neutralize most issues. Staying calm and detached is your strongest protective strategy.

Accident Risk

You should pay special attention to the Major Luck Cycles at ages 25 and 55. In particular, the Guǐ-Mǎo (癸卯) Major Luck Cycle at age 55 carries stronger disruptive potential for your overall fortune. It is wise to prepare both mentally and practically ahead of time to reduce the impact of unexpected events.

Commentary on Four Major Luck Cycles (Covering Forty Years)

Major Luck Cycle	Commentary on the Wù-Shēn (戊申) Major Luck Cycle
Wù Shēn	Wù Earth and Shēn Metal act as draining elements to your Day Master, weakening what was originally only a moderately strong foundation. Desires become harder to fulfill, and frustration may arise more easily. For a growing child, this cycle represents a clear period of challenge and testing , though it can enhance academic performance with proper guidance.
Years and Ages Covered	Health: Indigestion, poor nutrient absorption, increased fatigue, and higher susceptibility to lung-related infections .
From Aug 2008 to Aug 2018	Desires/Needs: Strong desire for more, but outcomes often fall short; mindfulness is needed to avoid impulsive choices.
From age 5 to 15	Academics: Supportive for academic growth ; strong results are achievable with the right mentorship.
Individual Item Scores(out of 10)	Accident Risk: Generally low, though interpersonal dynamics and environmental factors may introduce negative disturbances .
Health 4/10	Recommendation: Experiencing such a challenging first Major Luck Cycle can lead to significant early-life difficulties without proper guidance. Firm and effective discipline is essential during these ten years. A traditional remedy is to wear a black obsidian Sheep-zodiac pendant , adjusted according to annual luck, to strengthen your energy and help neutralize potential misfortune.

Academics 7/10
Accidents 4/10

Academics 8/10
Accidents 3/10
Major Luck Cycle	Commentary on the Bǐng-Wǔ (丙午) Major Luck Cycle
Bǐng Wǔ	This cycle appears supportive on the surface, but it carries strong underlying instability . It weakens your own strength and can negatively affect your partner, your work, and your overall behaviour patterns, making you more impulsive and harder to self-regulate . Its influence is broad and long-lasting .
Years and Ages Covered	Health: Pay close attention to the liver, gallbladder, stomach, and thyroid .
From Aug 2028 to Aug 2038	Wealth: Financial luck becomes unstable and easily disrupted , with a higher risk of loss or setbacks .
From age 25 to 35	Male Partner: The early stage of this cycle is the best time to meet a suitable partner and establish a long-term relationship. After that, the difficulty increases year by year . A lasting relationship requires a partner whose qualities align well with your needs .
Individual Item Scores(out of 10)	Accident Risk: No major inherent accident risk, but the level of chaos depends on the yearly luck.

Individual Item Scores(out of 10)	Accident Risk: No major inherent accident risk, but the specific level of stability depends on Annual Luck .
Health	7/10	Recommendation: These ten years are a critical period for building your strengths and long-term advantages. If you waste time or fail to manage your direction, the losses will be difficult to recover later . A traditional remedy may be used, but you should choose only one : either an Ox-zodiac pendant to enhance financial luck, or a Sheep-zodiac pendant to strengthen your personal energy and support your male partner's financial prospects. Never wear more than one zodiac pendant at the same time .
Wealth	7/10
Male Partner	7/10
Accidents	2/10
Major Luck Cycle	Commentary on the Jiǎ-Chén (甲辰) Major Luck Cycle
Jiǎ Chén	You enter another smooth and supportive cycle , where both overall assistance and financial opportunities become more obvious and direct than in the previous cycle. You no longer need to rely heavily on timing; your natural strengths can express themselves more easily .
Years and Ages Covered	Health: Pay attention to absorption and digestive function , and maintain your health through balanced routines and restorative habits .

Health	8/10	Recommendation: These ten years form a critical stage in the second half of your life . Make full use of every opportunity while maintaining a mindset of preparedness , so you are ready for any future shifts in luck. Wearing a Sheep-zodiac pendant can further strengthen your overall momentum .
Wealth	8/10
Male Partner	7/10
Accidents	2/10
Major Luck Cycle	Commentary on the Guǐ-Mǎo (癸卯) Major Luck Cycle
Guǐ Mǎo	This cycle marks a shift from smooth to challenging , bringing unexpected disruptions and making you more likely to be in a weakened or disadvantaged position , with a tendency to lose clarity in judgment .
Years and Ages Covered	The one factor that can genuinely help you during this period is your children —spending more time with them and allowing them to assist with tasks you find difficult can become your most reliable source of support .
From Aug 2058 to Aug 2068	Health: Pain-related issues become more frequent , including headaches, stomach pain, and bone pain .
From age 55 to 65	Pay special attention to the gallbladder, stomach, small intestine, and thyroid .
Individual Item Scores(out of 10)	Wealth: Accumulated wealth becomes highly vulnerable to loss during this cycle; avoid high-risk investments .
Health	3/10	Male Partner: Your male partner may experience financial depletion during this period, so financial management should focus on preservation rather than growth .
Wealth	3/10
Male Partner	4/10
Accidents	7/10
		Accident Risk: This cycle carries heightened accident risk , especially injuries to the hands and feet .
		Recommendation: These ten years are filled with challenges . Beyond the areas mentioned above, all other matters should be handled low-key and cautiously , avoiding unnecessary risks. Wearing a Sheep-zodiac pendant is traditionally recommended to help neutralize strong disruptions and maintain a more favourable position even during a difficult cycle.
